O'DANIEL, COLLINS ADDRESSED NAVARRO VOTERS HERE FRIDAY

SENATOR, SEEKING
RE-ELECTION, CHARGES
NEWSPAPERS "SOLD OUT"

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel and Hal Collins, traveling together in their campaign for the senatorial and gubernatorial nominations in the approaching primaries, addressed a large throng of Navarro and adjoining counties citizens at the courthouse Friday evening that capped all previous political gatherings here this year. The party spent the night at the Navarro Hotel and conferred with friends and supporters, leaving Saturday morning to inaugurate the final week campaign here the first and primary election, July 25. Both predicted victory.

Predicts Re-election.

O'Daniel predicted his re-election with the statement there would be no run-off, paid his respects to "controlled newspapers," mentioning the Dallas News and Fort Worth Star-Telegram, rapped the radio censoring of his addresses, lambasted communistic-controlled labor racketeers whom he charged with trying to change the democratic form of government, and paid his respects to his "gold dust twins." He said he would one quit a $10,000 job to run for another $10,000 job "he won't get," while another "wants to debate me so he can get a crowd to hear him." He charged "mud-slinging" by his opponents to cloud the real issue (communistic attack to change the government), the spending of huge sums against him and declared "they have everything on their side except God and the common people."

Anti-Strike Law.

The senator reviewed the enactment of the Texas Anti-Strike law as a great contribution to the war effort, and said his introduction in the senate of a similar bill, scared the labor racketeers. He stated that the law was called "anti-strikes." He said the 20 million man days lost through strikes was responsible for the deaths of American forces in the Philippines and in the sea because of lack of equipment and supplies. He predicted the continued bombing of Germany by 1,000 planes would cause the German people to depose Hitler who had promised them the war would be fought elsewhere, thereby ending the war.

He rapped his opponents for dragging the war into the campaign saying, "even if they had no heart, they should have had brains enough to know that the Chief Executive is commander-in-chief issuing war orders and that our boys in the camps say, 'Roosevelt is giving the war orders and this campaign is to select a legislative member of the government.'"

Roosevelt Great Leader
"Labor racketeers" were criticized for the reported forcing workmen at defense and other plants to pay from $25 to $200 for the "God-given right to work." He denied anyone had ever heard him "get funny about the war," and predicted victory because America has never lost a war. Roosevelt is the great leader, he said, and they will whip Hitler. "Our boys in uniform will win the war, not the politicians," he continued. He asserted he was not answering foolish questions propounded to try to cloud the issues at the present time, but would work for the common people in Washington the next six years, even if he did not like to live there.

O'Daniel charged one of his opponents had tried to drag the Bible into gutter politics, but learned the people of Texas were religious and against such tactics. He also said neither of his opponents had sons in the Army. His eldest son, Pat O'Daniel, is in the Army.

War Not Issue.
The senator emphasized his claim that the war is not an issue, but is a problem for 130 million united people.

The real dangerous issue, he continued, confronting the nation is the danger of losing our Democracy, and its replacement by a socialistic-communistic type. He charged that the message of the dangers can't be secured from newspapers "sold out lock, stock and barrel," who won't print the truth, and then asserted the plot to change our government had been exposed by Congressman Martin Dies of Texas. He said the Communistic plan was to close and shut down our industries and thereby cause the losing of the war. He also charged that billions of dollars were available to change the form of government by law enactment, to elect legislators not to interfere with the program and to defeat those opposing the scheme.

O'Daniel said that more than 2,000,000 letters were received by Congressmen from the people about the anti-strike legislation that did not pass after he (O'Daniel) started the movement, and that the racketeers, to head off the legislation, promised to call off the strikes and industries are now running almost fast enough. He said he started the movement, but was unable to save his life. The man charged with doing the cutting has been taken into custody.

He characterized his theory of government as the rank and file masters and the officers as servants. He charged that plenty of money is available to hire crooks, thugs, controlled newspapers, but "they can't buy the common people," he shouted, and predicted his re-election to the senate.

SENATOR W. LEE O'DANIEL, SEEKING RE-ELECTION, ADDRESSED THE VOTERS OF CORSICANA AND NAVARRO COUNTY FRIDAY NIGHT CHARGING NEWSPAPERS "SOLD OUT LOCK, STOCK AND BARREL."

"There Ain't Going To Be No Run-Off," he said, and that his opposition has "Everything on their side except God and the people."

Hal Collins spoke first and emphasized he intended to finish the job started in Austin by O'Daniel, and said the issue is that campaign was against the ring at Austin, and rapped lobbyists of special interest to the home and church, but he was not charging the "accidental" governor or any member of the legislature of any guilt, but that all lobbyists were saying Hal Collins must be defeated. He said O'Daniel crippled the ring and he was going to finish the job. The big job, Collins said, was the smashing of the Axis enemies as soon as possible. He said the people of Germany let a manipulator take over the government.

Collins said 130,000,000 Americans will follow Roosevelt and give him help and co-operation he needs and must have. After saying it is impossible to legislate morals, pointing out the home and church had that responsibility, he rapped liquor and promised a rigid enforcement of that law even if he had to call out the rangers. He said more than 1,000,000 soldiers were in Texas and their mothers were praying they do not come home as drunkards.

Must Clean-up Dens.
He said the dens about defense and army establishments must "clean-up or close up," and deplored the working of 15 and 16 year old girls at "honky-tonks" hopping cars and "dancing with drunken stags."

The candidate charged that Government Stevenson is largely responsible for the return of horse-racing while he was Speaker of the House in 1933 when the measure was a rider on another important measure by over-ruling objections and debate. He said that maybe Stevenson did vote against legalized horse-racing later. He charged that Stevenson hindered the getting of the full $20 pensions by the old folks, and asserted Stevenson was too busy to go out and tell the people what he stood for, but had plenty of time to run over the state for other activities, including a conference in Fort Worth with "the John L. Lewis and Harry Bridges racketeers," and numerous ribbon cutting affairs of the upper crust.

Collins had copies of the "Bill of Rights of the United States" sold among the audience. He said it was to defray his expenses, and any left over would go to a charitable cause.

ORDNANCE OFFICER INSPECTS PLANTS IN CORSICANA DISTRICT

COL. MERLE H. DAVIS,
U. S. ARMY, AND STAFF,
ON OFFICIAL VISIT HERE

Manufacture of aircraft bombs and similar projectiles in this area was termed a natural consequence of industrial conditions in the Midwest and Southwest by Col. Merle H. Davis, U. S. Army, head of the St. Louis Ordnance district, who was in Corsicana Friday with members of his staff inspecting various plants in this locally engaged in ordnance contracts.

Pointing out that almost all needed standardized items of equipment handled by his division were under contract at the present time and that potential capacity was sufficient to meet all needs, Col. Davis asserted that most military weapons were rolling off production lines in quantities in excess of available transportation facilities.

Many plants are now in production and others are tooling up and almost ready to start fulltime operations he stated, also pointing out that small shops with specialized equipment were frequently used to secure items in emergencies.

Ordnance Districts.
He explained that the United States was divided into a number of ordnance districts and the sector with main offices in St. Louis included Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Texas and the southern half of Illinois with extensive activity in progress in all states except New Mexico. Sufficient personnel is now available to aid the various plants in working out contracts, tooling up, starting production, and inspections he pointed out. Because of the great distances involved in the district, Col. Davis pointed out that a wide variety of plants were equipped to handle seamless steel tubing because of their connections with the vast oil industry and their experience with such materials.

Self-Reliant Group.
He also declared the Ordnance department had great confidence in the bomb fabricators, because they had been found to be self-reliant group, used a high skill and big financial risks in which errors meant disaster, and such factors had produced a careful but two-listed production capacity.

Col. Davis was accompanied to Corsicana by Lieut. Col. E. S. Baggett, chief of the Ordnance operations for the district, and Lieut. R. D. Campbell, formerly connected with the school of engineering of Southern Methodist University, who will head the Dallas sub-district office.

Col. Davis is a native of Vermont and is rated as one of the outstanding ordnance experts in the army of the United States, and was recently transferred to the St. Louis post from the Ordnance Division of the Ordnance office in Washington, D. C. where he had been assigned to duty for the past four years. He entered World War I as a private in 1917 and was commissioned a second lieutenant before the end of the year.

More Rulings On Rationing; Bicycles Are Added to List

Applications for the purchase of bicycles are now being received at the Navarro County Rationing Office, it was announced today by Wilbur Wright.

While listing several specific requirements, the regulations provide that persons engaged in gainful employment and who may require bicycles for strictly business purposes are eligible.

In connection with sugar rationing, Chairman Wright called attention to the fact that all cafes and boarding houses must submit detached sugar stamps of their patrons unused. He pointed out that these stamps must not be used to replenish table supplies. All automobile dealers, tire dealers, and finance companies having new, used or re-capped tires on hand must submit their quarterly inventory immediately. Chairman Wright announced. For information of the dealers, the inventory must be filed on form R-17, he said.

NAVARRO COUNTIANS URGED TO JOIN HOME NURSING CLASS TO BE ORGANIZED HERE; NEED GREAT

As another step towards total National Defense, the American Red Cross must expand its Home Nursing Program. According to announcement by Jim Nick Garrett, chairman of the Navarro County chapter of the American Red Cross, and Mrs. R. B. Mitchell, executive secretary, the quota of Home Nursing certificates for this County is 513, but only 77 Navarro Countians have received their certificates to date. The goal of 513 has been set for 1942, and local officials will bend every effort to attain it. Therefore, according to these figures, a total of 436 certificates must be issued in the County this year if the goal is reached.

New Class to Be Organized.
A new class will be organized in Home Nursing at once. Mrs. Matt Sandwich will be the instructor, and all who are interested in becoming members will register at Red Cross Headquarters on East Collin Street. Each class is limited to 20 members.

Need of Home Nursing.
The need for a Home Nursing program in every chapter cannot be over-emphasized, since the instruction teaches how to prevent illness, how to promote the health of the family and to care for minor illnesses in the home. In war times when graduate nurses are scarce for civilian service and hospitals are overtaxed, families need this type of instruction to enable them to be more self-reliant in meeting their problems.

The goal for the United States is 500,000 certificates this fiscal year, and Navarro County must do her part in meeting this goal. State Health Chairman Discusses Home Nursing Program.

George W. Cox, M. D., State Chairman of Health and Emergency Medical Service in Texas, discusses the Home Nursing Program as follows: "During this emergency the professional personnel in the fields of dentistry, nursing and medicine must probably be at the lowest ratio that the American civilian population has known. The stresses of our increased tempo of production, and of the crises inevitable in this conflict make it imperative that all practicable measures for the prevention of disease and the toughening of our physical stamina be implemented."

He says further: "One activity that each community in Texas should avail itself of is an instructional program in Home Nursing. Home nursing has been an activity of the American Red Cross for many decades. The standards for instructors for such a course are available through your local Red Cross chapter. The Red Cross textbook on 'Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick' is a usable text for such instruction. This text may be secured through your local chapter of the American Red Cross."

Local Instructors.
Corsicana has two qualified Home Nursing instructors, Mrs. Matt Sandwich and Mrs. Marion McAdams. Only five classes have been taught in Navarro County, two by Mrs. McAdams and three by Mrs. Sandwich. Mrs. Sandwich is teaching a class at Barry at the present time.

Judith Polk Bennett has the honor of being the first Corsicanan to be selected for induction into Uncle Sam's Women's Army Auxiliary Corps in this area. She will report to Fort Des Moines, Iowa, on August 3rd to go into six-week officer training course. More than 800 women made application for the training in the 8th Army Corps, but only 30 have been inducted into the service from this area.

Enrollment in the W.A.A.C. will be for the duration of the war and not more than six months thereafter. While training, the candidates will receive a salary plus uniforms and maintenance. The indicated market demand for Texas crude would be appreciably higher than for July.

Paul McMinnott of Fort Worth, representing the Sinclair-Prairie interests, requested the commission to increase production days in the East Texas field from 23 days since his company was unable to fill requirements under the present allowable rate.

"We need 45,000 barrels a day of spot oil," he stated. "On July 1, we had 495,000 barrels of crude in storage, but by August 1 we will have only 343,000 barrels. We consider the 495,000 barrel figure a safe minimum."

Gulf Oil Company representatives reported that the company was drawing 10,000 barrels a day from storage and had purchased 750,000 barrels of crude in this month. The company requested that all shut-down days be eliminated in the East Texas field, and that the daily allowable production be set at current figures.

Sinclair representatives said that their nominations for the North Texas field exceeded allowable production by 20,000 barrels a day and asked that shut-down days be eliminated to gain the full nominations.

Could Be Sent North. Stating that Sinclair stocks in the North Texas field were below working points, the spokesman explained that oil produced in the field could be readily transported north to defense areas.

Ohio Oil Company representatives asked relief in the northern part of Matagorda county in the Gulf coast producing area. Declaring the field had a lower allowable than others in the area, spokesmen said the company could not produce under the present allowable without physical waste.

The commission was requested by the Crown Central Petroleum Corporation to increase the allowable in the Hastings or Conroe fields to permit the concern to supply a portion of the army's demand for aviation gasoline.

A company spokesman asserted his concern was operating at 33 per cent of capacity and was unable to have motor fuel and products for local use due to transportation difficulties.

From Humble Oil & Refining Company the commission received a request for 30,000 barrels a day of light crude from the Refugio field for aviation type gasoline.

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY
By VERONICA DENGEL

MIDDLE LIFE.

Just because a man or woman has reached the middle years of life—or even though they may have been passed—is no reason for "letting go," and taking the attitude that life is practically over and holds very little in the future. I am dismayed to find this point of view so frequently exists with women who could so easily go on to greater happiness and business success than they have ever thought possible. Fay Holden (MGM feature player, soon to be seen in "Andy Hardy's Last Fling") is a shining example of this. Her work on the movie lot is always pleasing, always touching—and her years on the stage have been used as good background for that picture work. Because she is in the middle years she does not feel that she must quit her work and let the world go by her. She is alert, intelligent, and beautifully groomed. Her figure has that slender maturity that is so becoming to such women. She does not fight for girlish slimness, but she does permit any pounds of fat to accumulate where they don't belong. She brushes her hair every day, and wears it for her skin both night and morning. Her make-up is conservative and still most effective; and her clothes are perfect for her type.

Miss Holden likes suits so much, and they are always carefully tailored so that the shoulders fit exactly and the coat length is just right. These two points are important for the mature figure. She never wears too severe a blouse, but wouldn't dream of silly frills, either. Soft silk fabrics with flattering necklines are the wise choice. Her throat and chin line receive constant attention, too. A rich lubricant, stroked in upward motions, is a nightly routine—and she never neglects her facial exercises as well as her body limbering ones.

Do you do the same for yourself? Do you keep an open mind, an eagerness to do more constructive work? Do you take daily care of yourself—inside and outside? Do you choose your clothes carefully to suit your age and type? Are you moving forward—and not standing still? Ask yourself these questions—and then do something about yourself if the answers are "No's" in your honest answers to yourself!

and the Russians grew stronger around Voronezh there still was no word of the Nazi eastward drives from Boguchar and Miller to the Stalingrad on the Volga. Apparently the German drives in that direction were stalled.

In the Voronezh sector, the Red army held its recaptured positions on the west bank of the Don.

Convoy to Russia Comes Through Fight

MOSCOW, July 20.—(P)—A Tass correspondent "with the northern fleet" described today a battle lasting three days and nights between German planes and Soviet warships escorting a British and American convoy which reached a Russian port without damage to any of its transports.

During the "sleepless nights spent in the lights of unsetting sun and practically ceaseless fire," the Germans dropped 220 bombs and shot 14 torpedoes at the convoy, the correspondent reported.

Soviet planes also participated in driving off and shooting down many of the attacking Germans. The dispatch said at times the warships stood by, with all their guns manned, while the sounds of battle roared in the clouds and mists above.

In one attack by five torpedo planes the warships under the command of Capt. Kolchin opened up a great barrage from anti-aircraft artillery, machineguns and automatic rifles.

The first plane was forced to veer off and drop its missiles haphazardly. The second attacked from the rear with two torpedoes which missed the ship caravan and the third dived at a destroyer but a well-aimed shot brought it down.

The fourth was driven off without shooting its torpedoes, smoke trailing from its wings as fighter planes pursued, and a fifth was shot down in the barrage.

The correspondent did not say where or when the action occurred. But last week, however, dispatches from London told of a running fight in which two Allied convoys got through to Russia with only the loss of a few vessels after at least two German submarines had been sunk and several Nazi planes downed.

Russian Defense Plans.

LONDON, July 20.—(P)—Informal military quarters, who must remain anonymous, expressed the opinion today that Marshal Semenov Timoshenko hopes to safeguard the Caucasus today by forming a defense line along the great elbow of the Don and by holding his own communication lines between the Caucasus and Moscow.

They said they expect he will continue to withdraw until his forces form a line anchored on Rostov on the west and extending cent on normal and surtaxes for corporations. Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.), a committee member, had served notice he would make an attempt on the floor to obtain the 90 and 40 per cent rates, but he said that the committee's new rates were satisfactory to him.

The committee took no action on the question of post-war credits for corporations based on their excess profits during the war, once approved but later discarded.

Little Difference in Total. Doughton expressed the opinion that these last-minute changes would make little difference in the bill's total revenue, but that "in the long run, our changes will increase revenue because they will let corporations continue to live and that will mean more employment and more dividends."

Thus the heaviest tax bill in history, estimated to boost federal taxes to the unprecedented level of $28,000,000,000, seemed assured of passage today as the day and night session of the Senate sped transmission to the Senate, where Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the finance committee has arranged to open hearings Thursday. The measure would take $19 of each $100 of taxable income of individuals in the lowest brackets and $45 of each $100 of the taxable income of corporations, plus 87 1/2 per cent of their so-called "excess profits."

Extra Pay for Sub Duty. WASHINGTON, July 20.—(P)—A measure giving all officers and enlisted men on duty aboard a submarine 50 per cent above the regular pay for their rank was approved today by the house naval committee.

At present, submarine officers receive 25 per cent above their regular compensation, while enlisted men receive dividends for the hazardous undersea duty ranging from $5 to $30 monthly.

The increasing show of Russian power at Voronezh, coupled with German reports of large Red army troop concentrations in that area, indicated that a strong Soviet counter offensive against the extended flank of the German Don Valley drive might be in the making.

Still Claim Voronezh. The German high command, still clinging to its so far unfulfilled claim to the capture of Voronezh 13 days ago, acknowledged that the Russians were counter attacking on that flank but said the Red army's "attempts to recapture" the city were repulsed.

The battle for Egypt went into the air as swirling dust storms checked activity on the 40-mile land front from Tel El Eise, the "Hill of Jesus," to the low ridges at the north of the Qattara depression.

British fighter-bombers knocked out at least six tanks on the southern sector of the front and heavy damage to axis planes was caused in an aerial battering of a German landing field west of the battle area, the British reported.

At the same time, heavy bombers of the allied forces made a daylight attack yesterday on the axis supply port of Tobruk, which the Germans have renamed Rommel for their African commander.

There were indications that the axis forces, pulled back over the week end, were being regrouped for large-scale resumption of the desert battle.

Indian Troops Advance Slightly. British Indian troops advanced slightly on El Ruweisat Ridge of the battlezone and held their gains against tank and infantry counterattacks. On the southern flank of the front Imperial forces also moved ahead, following up at the margin of territory still held.

The RAF attack on northwestern Germany last night was the fourth in as many days, following up daylight bombings of the industrial Ruhr and submarine building centers at Lubeck and Flensburg.

The German communists said Nazi planes scored direct hits on a British war plant northeast of London in a daylight attack yesterday.

The United States Air Force bombing attacks on Japan's East China bases were made over the week end without the loss of a plane, Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell said the Red army's "attempts to recapture" the city were repulsed.

On the Chinese land front, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's armies reported capturing the seaports of Wenchow and Julian on the Chekiang province coast and breaking the Japanese grip on a 15-mile section of the Chokiang-Kiangsi rail line by seizing Iyang and Hengfeng.

No similar claim had yet been made in Berlin.

Russia May Face Jap Attack. DEVENPORT, N.H., July 20.—(P)—The former war secretary, Leslie Hore-Belisha, said in a speech today that Russia might face an attack from Japan "at any moment."

fighters escorting a strong force of light bombers which carried out the assault.

Heavy bombers of the Allied air force made a simultaneous daylight attack on the axis supply port of Tobruk. Only one British plane was reported lost in these operations.

Dust storms which hampered operations in the air also apparently kept land activity to a minimum, for British headquarters made no mention of fighting on the ground front yesterday.

There were indications that Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, unsuccessful in all attempts to regain lost ground, was regrouping his forces for a large-scale resumption of the desert battle.

Reports from the front said that during the past 48 hours the Germans had withdrawn at various places to straighten lines, denied by British advances—most pronounced along the coast and in the central sector.

The British themselves took advantage of the situation and solidified their own positions and fill up gaps in units engaged in the recent hard fighting.

U. S. Bombers Blast Tobruk. CAIRO, July 20.—(P)—Heavy bombers of the United States army air forces made a daylight attack on Tobruk yesterday, the RAF's Middle East news service reported today.

The British command's daily communiqué had reported this raid on the chief axis base port in Eastern Libya but had not identified the attacking craft as American.

The big parade of WAACs was not scheduled until today, but nearly 200 who reported last night got their first real taste of army life at 5:45 a. m. today in the You've-Got-To-Get-Up reveille bugle call.

Fully dressed 20 minutes later, they assembled in front of the barracks. At 6:35 they marched off to morning mess.

Nine WAAC uniforms appeared yesterday, and the principal wear was Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston, Texas, director of the organization, who arrived from Washington last night. Early arriving WAACs donned the other eight uniforms, chiefly to accommodate newspaper photographers.

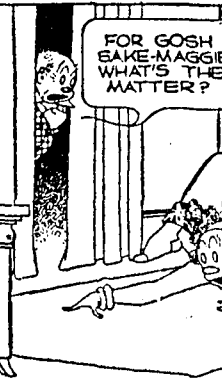

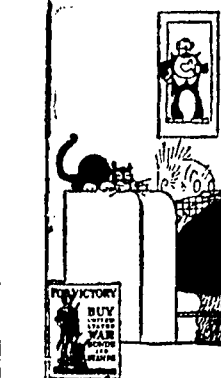

Today's processing program included routine physical checkups, inoculations against typhoid, tetanus and smallpox and assignment to companies and barracks. Each WAAC was issued four handkerchiefs, three bath towels, one toothbrush, one comb, medical canteen cup, fork, spoon and first aid packet.

The actual military schooling, which will prepare the women to take over noncombatant army jobs and release male soldiers for combat duty, will begin Thursday morning.

The British said they had no casualties or damage in either engagement.

RAIL COMMISSIONER RACE FOR REGULAR TERM HITS CLIMAX

AUSTIN, July 20.—(P)—The race for democratic nomination as rail-road commissioner, regular term, hits its climax this week as three contenders speed their vote hunt through the state.

Ernest O. Thompson, incumbent, and state representative Lester Boone of Fort Worth announced speaking engagements and extensive touring for the final week of the campaign.

The third aspirant, Baker Salsbury of Amarillo, an oil operator, also was campaigning actively. Thompson starts at Belton, Temple and Waco Tuesday and will follow up with Hillsboro, Ennis, Waxahatchie and Cleburne visits Wednesday topped by a Fort Worth radio broadcast at night. Thursday he will remain in Fort Worth and move on to Amarillo for Friday.

Boone schedule radio talks at his home town today and Tuesday followed by treks to Houston Wednesday and Dallas Thursday. He will close at Fort Worth Friday.

Salsbury, for 20 years an oil operator, tells the voters he was the first drilling contractor in the Panhandle oil field to institute an eight-hour day for field workers.

"I have always been for the conservation of our oil and other natural resources," he declared, and adds that "only through cooperation of industry and government will we be able to accomplish the coordination necessary to win the war."

Thompson pegs his bid for a second full term on his record in office, "a record of a job, well done."

"My experience in the regulation of oil production and transportation qualifies me to best serve Texas as during these trying times," he adds.

Boone, too, sees a need for vigorous action by the oil regulatory agency in war time.

Asserting the bottleneck of transportation "now paralyzing the state's petroleum industry" he pledges to "take positive and determined action to provide transportation outlets for Texas oil" if elected.

NAVARRO COUNTY BOY SCOUTS CAMP TO OPEN TUESDAY

Camp Turner for Boy Scouts of Navarro county will open Tuesday, July 21, on the Claude C. Turner farm about three miles southwest of Corsicana. It has been announced by I. G. Pumpelly, Scout executive. The camp will close Friday night, July 24.

Plans for the camp have been completed within the past few days and a complete list of camp assistants is not available. The camp will open with a Council Fire at 9 o'clock Tuesday night, and will be closed in the same manner. The general public is invited to attend both occasions.

The camp is open to any Scout in Navarro county and will be run on the regular Scouting plan. Tents will be placed about the camp site and the boys are expected to arrive at 3 o'clock in the afternoon to start work on the camp in shape and making preparations for the Council Fire.

Those attending will be required to pass a physical examination for their own protection as well as protection of other campers. Adequate leadership will be provided for all activities which will include canoeing, rifle range and the other usual activities in a boys camp.

The camp will be under direction of Claude Turner and he will be assisted by Mr. Pumpelly, Joe Kaufman, O. F. Allen, K. C. Kraway, Ernest Jones, John Pugh, John McAdams and others. Dr. S. H. Burnett, chairman of the health and safety committee, will see after the physical welfare of the boys. Civilian defense Scout messengers, warden cards, certificates and other awards will be awarded at the Council Fire Friday night.

James Wilson of Corsicana Promoted To First Sergeant
James Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Wilson, 1013 West Eleventh Avenue, has been promoted to the rank of first sergeant in the United States Army Air Corps, according to information received recently by his parents.

A graduate of Corsicana High School, Wilson enlisted in the Air Corps nearly two years ago. He received most of his training at Chanute Field, Illinois. He was stationed for a short period at Sheppard Field, Texas. Shortly after the outbreak of war, Wilson was assigned to an aerial machine-gun unit. He is now serving as a machine-gunner in one of the larger army bombers. He has held the rank of sergeant for the past several months, only recently being promoted to first sergeant.

To the Voters of Navarro County
To the Voters of Navarro County: Hello Friends! You will please remember that two years ago I made the race for the office of County Treasurer. I received a large vote but not enough at that time to elect me. At the time I was defeated I promised you that I would make the race again for treasurer in 1942, so folks, here I am coming to you again asking you to elect me to the office of County Treasurer. To those of you who do not know I wish to tell you that my opponent, Miss Alma Armstrong, is a teacher in the junior high school, being already employed by the county, and now to elect her to the office of County Treasurer you know would be allowing her to draw two separate checks from the county each month. If she (Miss Armstrong) is to only receive one dollar per year for her services, then pray tell me how in this world can she premise a dole of one hundred dollars per month from the county office? I am a some, charitable local institution. My attention has been called to the fact that I have in my possession an anonymous letter which is being circulated over the county. This letter is not signed by Miss Armstrong or by any one else, so please tell me who is it that is making all these promises? Under the law of the state of Texas, the county treasurer is required to post a surety bond in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his or her duties as treasurer. The county treasurer is required and must sign all checks, approve and sign all bonds pertaining to said office, and before this can be lawfully changed, the treasurer's office will have to be abolished by the legislature. It is not saving the county any money to reduce the treasurer's salary to one dollar per year and at the same time give the commissioners and county judge a substantial raise in salary. Friends, I need this office because my father is 87 years of age and aged mother is an invalid. In you all know that I have been a victim of infantile paralysis all of my life. Referring to this anonymous letter that is being circulated, I will say that I have never intimated by word or deed that I am elected I would hire a lawyer to enforce my rights in the court house. I need your help and will appreciate your vote for the office of County Treasurer on July 25, 1942.

Respectfully,
W. J. (JINKS) BRYAN.

Important Notice TO ALL ELECTION OFFICIALS!

Immediately upon the completion of the count of your box phone (collect) results to the Corsicana Daily Sun.
The Sun will attempt to give complete county totals the night of the election. This will be impossible without your box. Just tell the operator to connect you with the Daily Sun, Corsicana, (collect).
You should bear in mind that the Legislature passed a law requiring your returns to be phoned in immediately after the polls are closed and the count completed and imposes a stiff penalty on the precinct chairman if he should neglect to do this. The law further provides that the official returns shall be made to the County Chairman within twenty-four hours after the ballots are counted. A fine of not less than $50.00 nor more than $100.00 is the penalty fixed by law for any violation of the election law.
This is very important and your co-operation will be greatly appreciated.
